

VEYDRIX — The Future of Connection

Vision: Build the next global social platform: privacy-first, people-centered, and engineered for massive scale.

Problem: Current platforms exploit user data, lack trust, and create noise instead of meaningful connections.

Solution:

- Privacy-first social experience
- Global reach with local community features
- Innovation at speed (AI, edge tech, fast delivery)

Market:

- 4B+ global social media users
- High demand for trust, privacy, and alternative platforms

Business Model:

- Advertising (privacy-safe)
- Creator tools (subscriptions, marketplace)
- Premium features for power users

Traction (planned):

- Early sign-ups via launch page
- Partnerships with creators & brands
- Growing community interest

Team:

- Salim Babangida — Founder & CEO
- Advisory network under development

Ask:

- Seeking visionary investors & partners
- Early capital to scale infrastructure, marketing, and team
